

Helping Schools Address the HIV and STDs Prevention Needs of Heterosexual and LGBTQQ Youth

Fifth Annual STDs Prevention Awareness Month Event

Sponsored by the Alameda County STDs Community Interventions Program (SCIP), the California Adolescent Health Collaborative, the Alameda County Maternal, Paternal, Child, and Adolescent Health Program and the Alameda County Youth Health Collaborative

Wednesday, April 18, 2012

8:30 am - 4:30 pm

The California Endowment Conference Center
1111 Broadway, 7th Floor, Downtown Oakland
(NEAR THE CITY CENTER/12TH STREET BART STATION)

Register online at

<http://www.californiateenhealth.org/?p=3916>

Registration deadline: March 15, 2012

$35.00/person | $30.00/group of 3+ from same agency | $25.00 graduate students

Breakfast and lunch provided!

Program includes:

- Strategies, educational tools, curriculums, and best practices
- Review of mandates, educational codes, and STD data
- Tailoring inclusive prevention messages and activities
- Data and products for planning middle and high school STD prevention programs

Program is recommended for:

- Youth Program Managers
- Adolescent Health Educators
- Youth Counselors
- Youth Services Providers
- School Based Health Center Staff
- Middle and High School Staff

Space is limited.

Priority registration will go to Alameda County Youth Services staff working in a school-based setting.

For information, contact Eva.mourad@acgov.org or (510) 268-2384